

Fostering Accountability

W O R K S H O P

Envision a team
where everyone
owns their results...

...if this sounds too good to be true, your team is struggling with accountability. Without accountability, goals go unmet, tasks go undone, and frustrations and conflicts pile up. But when each member of an organization holds themselves and others accountable, it leads to higher trust, higher workplace engagement, and better results! In this half day workshop, you'll learn the 5 types of accountability conversations and how to use them on a daily basis.

---

Creating a Culture of Accountability | In healthy organizations, accountability is a given. Leaders hold themselves accountable, and mentor others to do the same. People take responsibility for their actions, and every individual owns the goals and objectives of the organization. When accountability is part of the culture, you attract and retain high performers. People look forward to coming to work, and the results show it!
