

Executive Coaching

All about your Leadership journey.

TAILORED COACHING TO YOU

Bartell Executive Coaching isn't a one size fits all. For every leader, we tailor a path and plan that fits your need, timeframe, and budget. It could be as simple as a single session to get an outside perspective, or a sustained initiative utilizing regular 1:1 development, 360 feedback, and targeted training courses. There are numerous tools available to precisely tailor the path as needed. Including:

- Bartell Executive Assessments for in-depth insights into leadership and personality traits.
- Needs assessments with the leader and/or leader's supervisor on desired outcomes.
- Live developmental roleplay scenarios and practice.
- Leadership 360 and employee feedback measurements.
- 1-day focused personal development "private workshop".
- Leadership Flight School™ (3 ½ Day immersion in Leadership Development)
- 1:1 coaching sessions - virtual or in-person - targeted to your goals.
- Team and organizational measures to quantify and track leadership improvement.

What sets great leaders apart from those who are simply "good"? Laser focus on personal development and growth. Business never stops evolving, and your skills can't either. Whether for you, or for someone on your team, Bartell Executive Coaching is often the right next step in your leadership journey.

THE COACHING PROCESS

Each coaching journey starts with a leadership assessment. This helps quantify the foundational elements of "who" you are as a leader - and gives key intervention points to accelerate development.

Using data and conversation, we craft a plan that fits your needs, targets, and budget. We believe in fully leveraging innate strengths and support individuals in finding their leadership "sweet spot" where they are naturally most effective.

Throughout the journey, we regularly assess progress and adjust as needed.

REAL RESULTS

As part of Bartell Coaching, we work 1:1 with leaders to answer key questions, such as:

- How can I increase my influence?
- Is there anything I should refine to get better results?
- What are my strengths to leverage, or challenges that could inhibit me?

At Bartell, we don't believe in selling "expensive conversations". We stand out because of our focus on achieving real improvement and real results for our clients. We equip you with the insight, knowledge, and practice opportunities to transform your leadership ability and take your success to new levels. Or as our clients often say: "It was life changing!"
